Importance of Education.

Is it education beyond any degree? Yes. The importance of education is ^{far} beyond any simplistic explanation. It is the key to change or improve one's life. It is confined not only in school, universities or any set-up institution but widespread beyond it - in life and in society. Education begins at home for a child and continues as a lifelong process that ends with death. Education certainly determines the quality of an individual's life. It improves one's knowledge, skill and develops the personality and attitude. There is a big value of education in life and society besides the learning of informations.

Education teaches an individual the ability to read and write which is the first step of in education. It makes people literate and help in building opportunities to make a decent living. Education improves and refines the speech of a person to have a better communication in life's activities. It also makes an individual a better user of technology in the changing modern world. Education certainly provides the technical skill necessary for using technology. Hence, without education it would probably be difficult to handle modern machines. Furthermore, education enables individuals to express their views efficiently and able to explain their opinion in a clear manner.

Education also help in spreading knowledge in society. It spreads like a network of information to change reach out the society and improve co-existence with love, care, peace and harmony. Education help in the development and innovation of technology. It also help in negotiation of peace and understanding among different nations with different culture, idea and thoughts, to come forward for a nation. Innovation of and development of medicines, computers, sustainable living, environmental safety, etc. comes from right education.

Therefore, in conclusion, we can say education is the weapon/key to change lives for a better living. It is a ray of hope and light in the darkness. It is a hope ~~of~~ for a better life, and this hope can be transfer from generation to generations, which is possible by education itself.
