Meeting minutes

1. It was decided that the B. Ed 1st semester teacher trainees would be called back for offline classes on EPC which is a practical component of the course.
2. On the first day (24th Feb, 2021) there will be a small induction time with the 1st semester students formally welcoming them to college and to make known the guidelines of the NU as well as college.
3. The online classes will continue with the B. Ed and the M. Ed 3rd semester students.
4. The attendance of the 3rd semester students both B. Ed and M. Ed will be calculated from online classes attended by them.
5. Attendance for B. Ed 1st semester students will be calculated from the offline practical classes.
6. Immediately after the induction of the students, the EPC classes will start. The students will be divided into two groups and seated in two different classrooms. Simultaneously two different EPC themes will start in the two classrooms.
7. It was decided that from each major theme of the EPC one sub theme will be dropped due to time constraints in completing the activity.
8. Dr. Ben will give a talk and revise the what, why and how of EPC on the 1st day for clarity although it was done online by Asale. More faculty members have been added in each remaining theme which are as follows:

- i. Changes in Me: My adolescent period and now (Self-Concept)- Asale (completed)
- ii. People whom I hate and people whom I love. Why?-Anisha /Atu
- iii. Soft skills I want to see in others-Ajung/Thron
- iv. Analysis of a movie: watch any movie on 'Pandemic' and compare how people's lives are affected in the movie and at present.- Anisha/Atu
- v. Desirable and Undesirable qualities of my teacher-Neize/Khriezo
- vi. My life in the new normal: changes I need to make- Zhavi/Dzuvi
- vii. Being an Academic leader in the New Normal- Dr. Ben/ Vedulu
- viii. Connecting with the Emotional needs of my students in a time of physical distancing- Roko/Mego
- ix. Suicide in our society. Why?-Runi

Faculty in-charges for different EPC themes may adopt their own strategy in conducting the activity. However, for those new ones, you may also use the following steps:

1. Introduce the theme
2. Let students reflect (use a few guiding questions to enable them to reflect well)
3. Let them discuss in small groups/ use snowballing
4. Write down the outcome (draft)
5. Submit.
9. Dr. Runi Nakro will be the in-charge for University examinations.
10. Classes will not be held daily, it will be conducted on alternate days following the SOP
11. It was decided that a farewell program for the outgoing Principal Shri. Hekishe Sema and Mr. Salie (staff whose retirement is also this month and was learnt only after the faculty meeting) will be organized in college on the 26th of February, the last working day of the month. Mego and Atu will be in-charges for lunch.
12. It was decided that weak or irregular students among the B. Ed 3rd semester students will be identified in each paper by the faculty concerned and caution them of their status of attendance, submission of assignments etc.
13. The following faculty and staff will inquire (in Kohima) for stitching of College Blazer for the new batch of B. Ed students.

- i. Ms. Khriezonuo Belho
- ii. Ms. Ajungla
- iii. Ms. Florence
