

Section 1 of 4

Testing of Entry Behavior -2021

Status at the Entry point:

21 responses

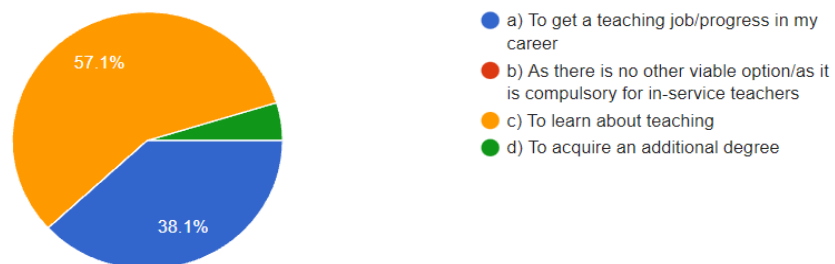

Is this the first course that you have opted for, after graduation/post graduation?

21 responses

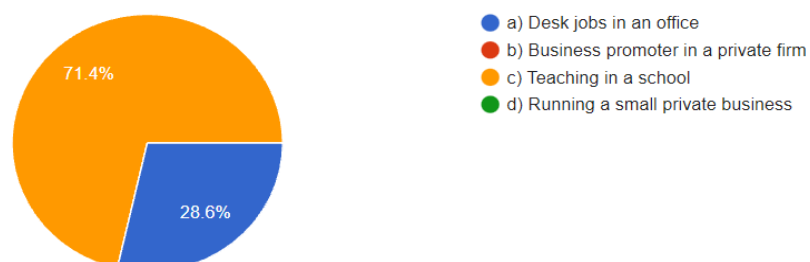

1. I have joined the B.Ed. Programme

21 responses

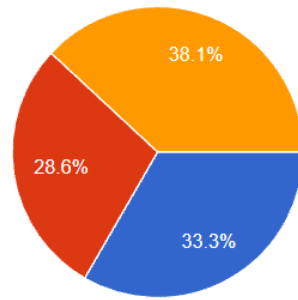

2. Given a choice, which of the following would you opt for :

21 responses

3. According to you one can be a good teacher if he/she :

21 responses

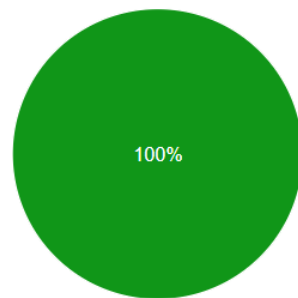

- a) Possesses all the skills for teaching
- b) Has good content mastery over his/her subject
- c) Loves and cares for students
- d) Has a good academic record and is highly qualified

---

4. Which will be the best way for drawing the attention of the students in your class?

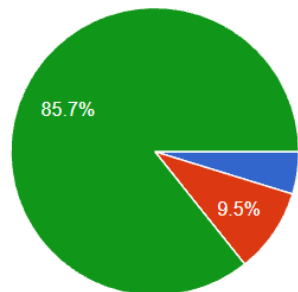

21 responses

- a) To ask them to behave properly
- b) To warn the whole class for the consequences
- c) To ask unruly students to go out
- d) To engage them in activity

5. A teacher in the class should keep his speech:

21 responses

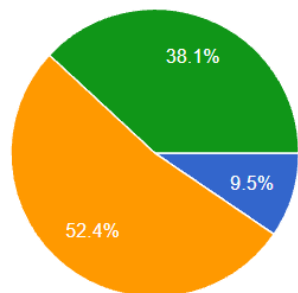

- a) In high volume
- b) Intonated
- c) Moderately average
- d) With volume sufficient to be heard by the last row

---

6. Which should be the most desirable behaviour of a teacher in the class?

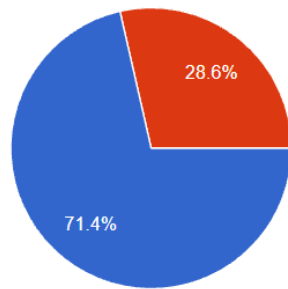

21 responses

- a) To be a strict disciplinarian
- b) Having laissez-faire attitude
- c) To be democratic
- d) To be permissive in the class

7. The best way to handle a wrong answer given by the student would be:

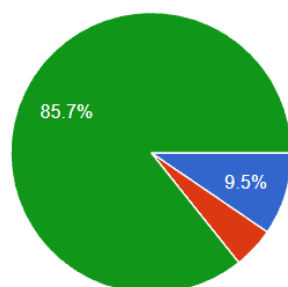

21 responses

- a) To explain the subject matter in further detail to make him realize his mistake
- b) To explain why the answer is wrong
- c) To scold him for not learning the lesson well
- d) To ignore the wrong answer

8. A Student usually misbehaves. What should you do as a teacher?

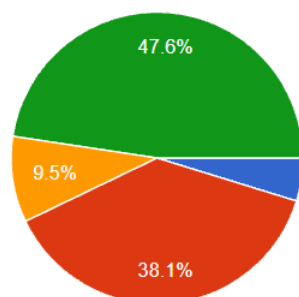

21 responses

- a) Give a suitable rebuke
- b) Give example of some other students behaving properly
- c) Report the matter to parents
- d) Make sure he realizes undesirability of his behaviour

9. If a student is restless sitting in the back row of the class and repeatedly stands, looks forward and takes notes, what can be the most probable cause for it?

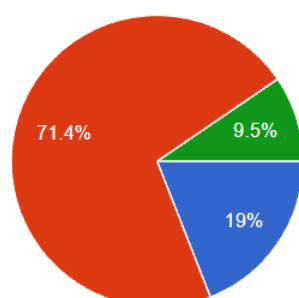

21 responses

- a) It is his usual habit
- b) Blackboard writing is not legible
- c) The child wants to get the attention of the teacher
- d) The child may have defective vision

10. A teacher has to disseminate certain factual information of the subject he is teaching. What would be the best way?

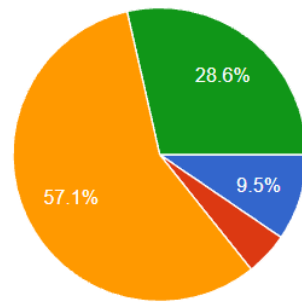

21 responses

- a) Displaying the information on the board
- b) Organising it into bodies of meaningful bits of information
- c) Distributing leaflets
- d) Dictating notes in the class-room

11. Why should there be discipline in any class-room? (Select the best option in your opinion)

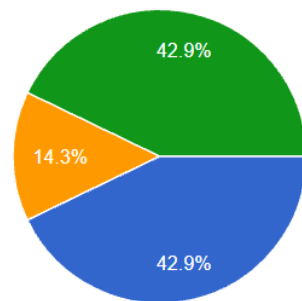

21 responses

- a) Children should feel that it is legal requirement
- b) Children should realize that power rests with the teacher
- c) Children should perceive the benefits of an orderly world
- d) There are benefits in following rules.

12. What would be your normal reaction to the novel idea presented by a student who called you a liar a day before?

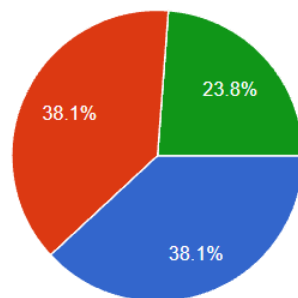

21 responses

- a) You will accept it and praise it
- b) You will ask other students to examine it
- c) You will ignore it
- d) You will start examination it

13. . If a student does not understand what is being taught, the teacher should :

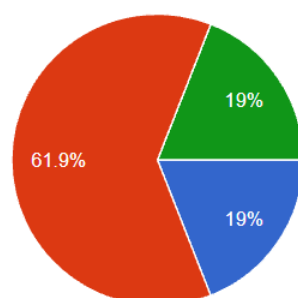

21 responses

- a) Repeat the lesson
- b) Give more examples for practice
- c) Ask for tuitions
- d) Check up the background knowledge of the students

14. The best way to reform our examination system would be

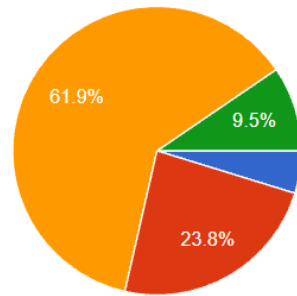

21 responses

- a) to have internal evaluation only
- b) to have more weightage for internal exam
- c) to have external evaluation only
- d) to lessen the number of board exams

15. Schools should be concerned with (select the best)

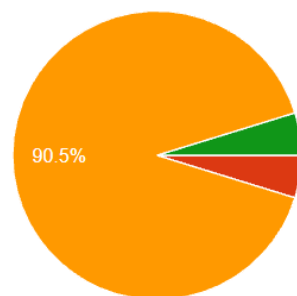

21 responses

- a) Developing capacity for employment
- b) Developing a good human being
- c) Developing responsible citizens
- d) Developing a good human being for the nation

16. Co-curricular activities should be given :

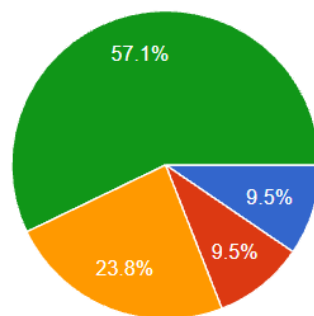

21 responses

- a) More importance over academics
- b) Lesser importance over academics
- c) Equal importance as over academics
- d) No weightage in the assessment of learners

17. The best way to appreciate students work would be to :

21 responses

- a) Give them material rewards
- b) Give them certificates
- c) Display their work in school
- d) Give them additional opportunities & attention.